Northwest Chapter

Please join the members of the Northwest Chapter for an evening of fun in the Little Five Points Neighborhood followed by the best Italian dining in Atlanta, Il Localino

DATE: October 7, 2008, Tuesday Evening

TIME: 6:00pm

COST: The Northwest Chapter will cover the transportation cost to and from the Little Five Points neighborhood. The total dinner bill, including tip, will be split evenly amongst those dining at Il Localino.

We will meet in the Hilton Hotel Lobby at 6pm. We will take a van(s) to the Little Five Points neighborhood, which is located approximately 3 miles from the Hilton. After browsing the eclectic shops, we'll meet at 7:30 for dinner at Trattoria Il Localino which is located on Highland Avenue in Little Five Points. After dinner we'll take a van(s) back to the hotel. Or for those who wish to top off dinner with a night cap, there is a great entertainment district located a mile from Little Five Points. The vans will make a stop there prior to returning to the Hilton.

Little Five Points is possibly the coolest spot on the map between Greenwich Village and the French Quarter. It's a unique business community, a diverse neighborhood and a cultural excursion all rolled up into one, designed with fun in mind!

Discover a little taste of Italy in Atlanta at Trattoria Il Localino. They serve some of the finest pastas and Italian desserts in the city, all in a fun environment with excellent service. This restaurant is well known and highly recommended throughout the AICP community.
