AICP Recognizes Members

At their 16th Annual Conference in Denver, Colorado the Association of Insurance Compliance Professionals (AICP) recognized three of its members for their outstanding contributions to the organization. President Kim Kennedy presented the President's Award to Kathy Trimbur, CPCU, CCP, ARC, CLU of Nationwide Insurance in Columbus, Ohio and Sandra Makela of Berkley Risk Administrators Company, LLC in Minneapolis. Trimbur was the association's secretary and chairperson for the annual conference. Makela spearheaded the organization's website this past year making it one of the leading websites in the industry.

Deborah Matthews, CCP of Old Republic Insurance Company in Chicago was awarded the association's most prestigious award, the Robert W. Lennon Award. This award is given to an individual who most exemplifies the spirit of volunteerism and dedication to the association. Matthews was recognized for her distinguished service to AICP over the years as national secretary, vice president, president, past president, and chairperson of numerous committees. She has also served two regional chapters in various capacities.

For more information about AICP, visit their website at www.aicp.net.

The Association of Insurance Compliance Professionals, with over 1,200 current members, serves the insurance compliance community by promoting relationships, exchanging information, and providing learning opportunities within a dynamic regulatory environment. Members include personnel from property, casualty, life and health insurers, regulatory agencies, consultants and other specialty operations. The AICP is dedicated to promoting regulatory competence and awareness for the improvement of regulatory compliance within the insurance industry.
