HEADLINE: ASSOCIATION OF INSURANCE COMPLIANCE PROFESSIONALS ANNOUNCES A MARYLAND EDUCATION DAY

BODY: The Mid-Atlantic Chapter of the Association of Insurance Compliance Professionals (AICP) is sponsoring a Maryland Education Day on November 6, 2003, at AEGON Direct Marketing, Inc. 520 Park Ave., Baltimore, Maryland.

The conference will feature the newly elected Maryland Commissioner of Insurance, Alfred W. Redmer, Jr. during the morning session. The afternoon session will feature Howard Max, the Chief Administrator in the Forms and Rates division for Life and Health; David Diehl, the Chief Administrator in the Forms and Rates Division for Property and Casualty; and Randy Johnson, the Associate Commissioner of Property and Casualty.

The AICP is a not for profit association, which serves the insurance compliance community by promoting regulatory competence and awareness for the improvement of regulatory compliance within the insurance industry. AICP has over 1,100 members, including representatives from property and casualty and life and health insurers, regulatory agencies, consultants, and other specialty operations representatives.

For conference registration information, contact Linda Theodore or Mary McAusland at 800-233-4624.

The Association of Insurance Compliance Professionals, with over 1,100 current members, serves the insurance compliance community by promoting relationships, exchanging information, and providing learning opportunities within a dynamic regulatory environment. Members include personnel from property, casualty, life and health insurers, regulatory agencies, consultants and other specialty operations. The AICP is dedicated to promoting regulatory competence and awareness for the improvement of regulatory compliance within the insurance industry.
