HEADLINE: AICP 2005 Lennon & President's Award

BODY:

The Association for Insurance Compliance Professionals (AICP) is pleased to announce the 2005 Lennon & President's Award recipients. This years recipients are Kim Marie Kennedy, ACP, Lennon Award and Gregory Popolizio, President's Award.

The Lennon Award is AICP's most prestigious award; which is named after one of the founding fathers who was not only instrumental in the initial development but also contributed years of service to the organization. This award is reserved for members who have continuously demonstrated commitment to the Association over time and have made significant contributions to the shaping of the AICP. This year the Lennon Award was presented to Kim Marie Kennedy, ACP of St. Paul Travelers in recognition of her dedication, fortitude and outstanding service to the AICP as Regional Director, National Vice President, National President and Past President, Chapter Vice President, President & Past President, volunteer on numerous committees including Chair of several; and her ongoing contributions and staunch support of the Mission & Vision statement of the AICP. Kim Marie is in direct accord with the caring spirit for whom this award was named after.

The President's Award is given to those members who, in the view of the AICP's President, have made significant contributions to the Association in pursuit of its goals relative to the Mission & Vision Statement. This year's award was presented to Gregory Popolizio, Allmerica Property & Casualty Insurance Companies by President Bill Douglas, FLMI, AIRC, ACS, CCP of Standard Insurance Company. Gregory received this award in grateful recognition of his service and dedication to the AICP.

The Association of Insurance Compliance Professionals, with over 1,400 current members, serves the insurance compliance community by promoting relationships, exchanging information, and providing learning opportunities within a dynamic regulatory environment. Members include personnel from property, casualty, life and health insurers, regulatory agencies, consultants and other specialty operations. The AICP is dedicated to promoting regulatory competence and awareness for the improvement of regulatory compliance within the insurance industry.
