AICP Awards First Scholarship to Peter Tursi

The Association of Insurance Compliance Professionals (AICP) awarded its first scholarship to Peter Tursi, AIRC, CCP of Albuquerque, New Mexico. Mr. Tursi is a member of AICP and is continuing his education with Excelsior College in pursuit of a degree in Insurance and Risk Management. Peter Tursi is a compliance officer for the New Mexico Mutual Insurance Group.

AICP has a primary objective of fostering learning opportunities for the insurance compliance community. In support of this objective, AICP awarded this $1,000 scholarship in an effort to further insurance education, and to encourage and support students who have an interest in insurance as a career. The scholarship is available to AICP members and members' children and grandchildren. The scholarship is for tuition and fees for undergraduate or graduate studies.

Eligible candidates are selected based upon Grade Point Average; involvement in extra-curricular activities, and level of educational interest and dedication to the insurance industry.

For more information regarding eligibility and how to apply, visit the AICP website at www.aicp.net.

The Association of Insurance Compliance Professionals, with over 1,200 current members, serves the insurance compliance community by promoting relationships, exchanging information, and providing learning opportunities within a dynamic regulatory environment. Members include personnel from property, casualty, life and health insurers, regulatory agencies, consultants and other specialty operations. The AICP is dedicated to promoting regulatory competence and awareness for the improvement of regulatory compliance within the insurance industry.
