HEADLINE: AICP to hold 20th Annual Conference in Portland, Oregon

BODY:

The Association for Insurance Compliance Professionals (AICP) is proud to announce that this year's annual conference, "Celebrating the Past, Planning for the Future", will be held at the Hilton Portland & Executive Tower in Portland, Oregon October 28 – 31, 2007. This is the AICP's 20th Annual Conference and looks to be one, if not the only, most comprehensive conference for the insurance compliance professional.

This year's conference will feature almost 80 concurrent educational sessions, involving Property & Casualty and Life & Health sessions from beginner to advance level. While getting the most up-to-date compliance news and information on P&C/L&H; attendees will have the opportunity to have a Q&A session with a panel of experienced compliance professionals and state regulators. Along with these great sessions, we are pleased to announce that we will have over 30 state regulators attending and participating in zone panel discussions, as well as one-on-one sessions with attendees.

In addition to all this learning, we are proud to announce Susan Carnahan, Professional Trainer, Author, Personal Coach and President of Carnahan Presents, Inc. and Joel Ario, Pennsylvania Commissioner of Insurance as this year's keynote speakers. Both speakers have extensive backgrounds in both public speaking and the insurance industry. Attendees will have the opportunity to hear Ms. Carnahan and Commissioner Ario speak during the opening breakfast sessions. Commissioner Ario will also be participating in the Commissioners Corner session.

Early registration for this year's event ends September 14, 2007 so don't delay. This is an event you will not want to miss. Visit us at www.aicp.net, call 703-234-4074 or e-mail us at aicp@aicp.net.

The Association of Insurance Compliance Professionals, with over 1,200 current members, serves the insurance compliance community by promoting relationships, exchanging information, and providing learning opportunities within a dynamic regulatory environment. Members include personnel from property, casualty, life and health insurers, regulatory agencies, consultants and other specialty operations. The AICP is dedicated to promoting regulatory competence and awareness for the improvement of regulatory compliance within the insurance industry.
