

Save the Date!

February 22, 2010 is the next Mid-Atlantic AICP E-Day.

Wilmington, Delaware will be the site of the next Mid-Atlantic E-Day. The Planning Committee, would like you to "save February 22, 2010" on your calendar, and plan to participate in what is fast becoming a well planned, educational day.

Location, location, location! E-Day will be held at the Sheraton Suites Wilmington and is easily accessible by Public Transportation. Right in the heart of downtown Wilmington, the Sheraton is easy to get to by plane (Philadelphia International Airport is only 20 minutes away), train (the Amtrak station is less than a mile away), or automobile (I-95 literally leads to the Hotel's steps).

World-class museums such as Hagley, Winterthur, and Longwood Gardens are just a short drive away. If tax-free shopping is what really interests you, two major malls are less than fifteen minutes from the hotel. You can also check out the Brandywine Valley while you are here.

Our Committees are hard at work planning what should be a fun, interesting day for all attendees. More details and registration information will follow shortly.

Looking forward to seeing you there!!!

Don't forget it is the AICP's 25th anniversary.
