

Karen Crooks has been in the insurance industry for 20+ years. She is currently the Product Compliance Manager for the insurance companies of OneAmerica in Indianapolis, IN. Previously, she was the Life and Annuity Compliance Manager for Conseco, Inc. in Carmel, IN. She began her insurance career at a local MetLife sales office outside of Cincinnati, OH. She then worked at a sales office and regional office of MetLife in Nashville, TN. Eventually, she made her way back north to Midland Insurance Company in Columbus, OH and then to Indianapolis.

Karen is currently President of the AICP, and has served previously as Vice-President, Regional Director for the Midwest Forum, as well as chapter Vice-President, President, Past President and Secretary and has worked on several AICP national committees. She is also a member of the Life and Health Compliance Association.

Karen has a B.S. in Science Education from the University of Cincinnati, and graduate work at The Ohio State University and Purdue University.

Away from the office Karen enjoys spending time with her family, tennis, reading anything that is not insurance related, and traveling.