

Association of Insurance Compliance Professionals (AICP) Summary of Benefits

MISSION STATEMENT:

The Association of Insurance Compliance Professionals serves the insurance compliance community by promoting relationships, exchanging information, and providing learning opportunities within a dynamic regulatory environment.

WHO WE ARE

- A non-profit, non-lobbying organization founded in 1985
- Consisting of over 1,500 members
- Representing 600 different companies, regulatory bodies and service providers
- Comprised of dedicated volunteers

HOW WE ACHIEVE OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We promote relationships by:

- Providing networking opportunities at all of our meetings
- Helping first time annual conference attendees meet other first time attendees to learn how to get the most out of their conference experience
- Giving members multiple ways to access other AICP members, including the 120+ regulators who are either AICP members or who have spoken at AICP events during the past year

We exchange information by:

- Publishing a quarterly Journal
- Operating a Member Discussion Forum on our website
- Sharing special insights by industry leaders in a Compliance Perspective section on our website
- Issuing DOI alerts on behalf of many Insurance Departments to notify members of important information in the most timely manner

We provide learning opportunities by:

- Conducting over 20 meetings annually via, webinars, Education Days and other AICP gatherings at the National and Chapter levels
- Hosting an Annual Conference with over 70 educational sessions on average, presented by regulators as well as industry experts

WE PROVIDE SUPERIOR VALUE FOR OUR MEMBERS

Our $190 yearly membership dues are competitively priced compared to similar organizations.

- The CPCU Society charges $190 + separate Chapter dues
- The Regulatory Compliance Association charges $250
- The Securities and Insurance Licensing Association (SILA) charges $150

AICP MEMBERS GAIN

- Leadership, motivational, organizational and public speaking skills by volunteering at the National or Chapter level
- Compliance knowledge from networking with other members and from the various educational programs we offer
- Access to a diverse group of insurance compliance professionals eager to share their knowledge and mentor others
