"Coming together is a beginning. Keeping together is progress. Working together is success."¹

January 05, 2009

My Fellow Members:

On behalf of the Mid-Atlantic Chapter, I would like to personally welcome you to membership in the AICP Mid-Atlantic Chapter.

The beginning of a new year brings focus on what one wants to accomplish in the upcoming months. I ask that now of my fellow Mid-Atlantic Chapter members. As stated above, our success as a Chapter will be determined by our willingness to work together. Our Chapter leadership is committed to promoting the services of the AICP and serving as a resource for your professional development.

We must begin to plan for speakers, presentations, networking and educational opportunities to increase our professional knowledge and expand our business contacts. I would encourage each member to get involved in volunteer opportunities or volunteer to put a program together that will benefit our membership. New ideas and perspectives are welcomed to keep our Chapter offerings and events fresh and relevant to the needs of our members.

Begin this year by becoming a leader in our great organization. We are looking for committee chairs for the following committees: Planning, Membership, Nominating, Website/Publicity and Education. Feel free to call or send an email to myself or other Chapter leaders to chair or volunteer your efforts with a committee. Visit the AICP web site at www.aicp.net and click on "Chapters" & "Mid-Atlantic Chapter" as a resource for information, future meetings, events and news.

Stayed tuned for more information to follow concerning an upcoming E-Day and networking event in the spring.

The culminating event is the Annual Conference that will take place this year, October 4th- 7th, in Phoenix, Arizona.

I would encourage you to allow your AICP membership to be a rewarding experience by getting involved and having a vested interest.

If you have any questions, or if an issue of concern arises, please feel free to contact me or any Mid-Atlantic Chapter officer.

I look forward to working with you!

Sincerely,

Karen L. Pollitt, AIRC, CCP
President
Mid-Atlantic Chapter, AICP
